

INFORMATION FOR ATTENDEES - DOJ SPONSORED EVENTS

Directions

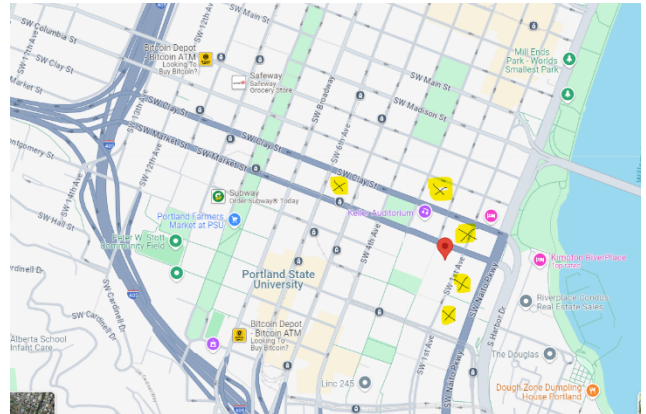

The Oregon Department of Justice is housed within the 100 Park Square building at 100 SW Market Street, Portland, OR 97201 located in the SoMa Eco District of downtown Portland at the corner of SW Market Street and SW 1st Avenue, about two blocks west of the Willamette River.

Parking & Transportation Options

The office is located within easy access to area freeways (I-5, I 84, and US 26). Our office does not have reserved parking, but it is within walking distance of on-street metered parking spaces and several pay-to-park lots and parking structures (see adjacent map). Please note that the Oregon Department of Justice does not validate parking for external visitors.

Local parking lots include:

- 100 Market (ACE Lot 4008) 1725 SW 1st Ave

approximately five blocks from the office. For availability and details about monthly parking, contact Monthly Permits at (503) 790-9302 ext. 154 or send an email to: SmartParkMonthly@ssplus.com. For more information, please refer to: <https://www.portland.gov/transportation/parking/smartpark#toc-contact-us>.

On-street parking is regulated, so you need to make sure to check the signs where you park to ensure you are following the parking rules associated with the space. The parking meters in the Downtown District operate 8:00 am to 7:00 pm, Monday through Saturday, and 1:00 pm to 7:00 om on Sunday, unless otherwise posted. Parking meters with time limits of more than 4 hours allow users to purchase additional time without moving the vehicle. For short-term meters (4 hours or less), vehicles that remain on the same side of the block beyond the maximum time allowed are subject to citation. Parking meter rates vary, but parking is free at meters on the ten (10) holidays specified on each meter. However, parking is only free on the actual holidays, regardless of what day of the week it falls on. Please refer to <https://www.portland.gov/transportation/parking/parking-guide> for more information.
