Request for Suspension of Support for Child Attending School

ORS 107.108; OAR 137-055-5110

My child, _____, does not qualify as a Child Attending School, and I request the Oregon Child Support Program ("the program") suspend my child support obligation.

To qualify as a Child Attending School, the child must:

- be enrolled in school at least one-half time, as defined by the school.
• make satisfactory academic progress, as defined by the school.
• notify us and the paying parent of the child's intent to attend school.*
• consent to the release of information by the school to the paying parent regarding the child's enrollment status, academic progress, class schedule, and grades.*
• tell us and the paying parent in advance of changing schools.

*If the program has entered an order for non-disclosure, the child will send any required documents to the program only. The program will forward the documents to you.
